Artists are invited to submit more than one piece. Art pieces must be delivered to the address above by June 15 2022. Each piece must have a separate form attached to it and in a bag.

Participation:

Kindly advise us that you will be participating by email Hello@bayfieldarts.ca

While this is not a juried exhibition, it is a ticketed event and accordingly all submissions will be gently screened for commercial viability.

We will arrange for photography of the images for the exhibition. Please ensure that you enclose your bio information form with your painting and phone image so that we can track your painting (see attached).

Please ensure your painting is signed and named on the back.
